PETITIONS OFFICE

In reply to a Final Rejection dated August 14, 2001, the applicant filed a timely Amendment After Final Rejection bearing a Certificate of Mailing dated October 25, 2001. Because of the new U.S. Postal Service policy of segregating mail addressed to Washington D.C. zip codes, applicant's reply did not reach the PTO for about 3 ½ months (i.e. until February 4, 2002). Consequently, the Examiner's Advisory Action dated February 15, 2002 was issued only after the full six month statutory period had already run (on February 14, 2002).

However, in October, 2001, the applicant did not know and had no way to anticipate the magnitude of the anthrax scare and the resulting long time delay (of approximately 3 ½ months) in sending first class mail to Washington D.C. But for this long and unforeseen postal delay, the Examiner would have received and acted upon the applicant's Amendment After Final Rejection while still leaving sufficient time during the six month statutory period for the applicant to take additional action without having this application go abandoned. In other words, had applicant's Amendment After Final Rejection reached the PTO in a reasonable time, it is simply not likely that this application would have gone abandoned. Because the intervening mail delay was extraordinary and could not have been known or anticipated (in October, 2001), it is submitted that the reason for this application going abandoned was entirely unavoidable on the part of the applicant.
